Roseben, in the fourth race, was the best thing of the day. He was backed from ? to 5 to even money. Resebet is a high-class horse, especially in the mod. He came here from New Orleans, where he was in the first division. Nobody ever heard of Jockey Smithson, and that accounted for the price. Roseben won all the way in a gallop, with Buttons just as easily second. Neversion was third.

Neversuch belongs to J. K. Hughes. Hughes has been under the ban since the Deimar meeting and has not been allowed to start anything here. Recently he submitted evidence to Judge Murphy that in the latter's opinion exonerated him. Sworn testimony from certain turfmen was accepted as relieving Hughes from certain suspicions previously entertained by the officials. Highes's restoration to favor was well received, as he is generally liked and bears a first-rate reputation. He is not booking at this meeting.

BRITT'S WINNINGS LARGER THAN THOSE OF JEFFRIES

San Francisco Feather Weight Has Earned $83,000 in Three Years of Professional Fighting.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Jan. 18 - Jimmy Britt of San Francisco has been fighting professionally for three years. During that time his ring earnings have been larger than those of heavy-weight Champion Jim Jeffries, Here is Britt's own account of his battles, with an estimate of his earnings: BY JAMES E BRITT

I have had in all just twelve professional fights and have been fighting just three years. This seems like a small record, but remember every man was a top notcher. My first fight was with Toby Irwin and went fifteen rounds to a decision in my favor and netted me 2.00. 1 next fought Tim Hagerty, only ten days later, for beating whom I received $3.000 Not had for the first ten days in the best-Second Race School Craft, Girdlestone, Sea Sector Assessment of the Hurst, Kenliworth, Third Ency-Delance, Tim Hurst, Kenliworth, Fourth Ency-Possil, Ethylene, Sala Firth Race-Mad Mullah, Varro, Italiful, Sixth Race-Mad Mullah, Kemembo, Agneral

My next battle was with 0'Keefe, to whom I lost unjustly by a foul after having him out. For this I received $1.50. Willie Fitzgerald was my next opponent and I gained $5.00 for winning. My return engagement with 0'Keefe at Butte was a draw and netted me $2.50.

I then fought Charife Sleen and received $5.00 more. Next came Martin Canole. We fought outside of town and I only got $3.00.

and won by haif a length. Moonet was sliowed to drop out of the first part. She can beat fields like this.

Main, from the Griffin stable, won the 2-year-old event. It was a poor start. Main was off well and won all the way. All off Griffin's horres are lucky at the post.

Maverick won the second very easily. He had little to beat Jump Combis horres. Room Mate was the best all the way.

Folice Commissioner Andy Blong of St. Louis came in to-day. So did Matt Winn of Louisville, who is here to talk over prospects for the new circuit. Joe Rhinock of Conjuncton and George Cov are expected here in more properly in complete to Deverours. They want to buy out better in only proceeding and only the local process. TAYLOR REPLIES TO HERRMANN

St. Louis Pitcher Sends Letter Containing Correspondence Between Managers.

Jack Taylor, in his letter to Garry Herrmann, telling of the correspondence between the Cardinal pitcher, Johnson and Comiskey, says that he was called to Manager Hart's office, and that the latter agreed to pay $100 to each player for ach game out of the fifteen that did not have to be played. At that time the Chicago National team had won three and lost one game.

A few days later, Taylor says, he was called to Hart's office again, and the manager was not in the best of humor. The White Sox had tied the score, and Hart questioned Taylor as to whether he had kept himself in condition.

Taylor says that Hart claims that he had been informed that the pitcher had been sitting up late at night, drinking and playing cards, This Taylor denied, saying that he retired every night not later than 12 o'clock.

Hart further claimed that Taylor was seen by the former's friends on the street at 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning, this information being telephoned to him. Taylor then asked that Hart give the names of the persons who telephoned such information. Hart claims that he asked, but that they would not tell their names. Taylor then says that Hart exclaimed:

Well, I think you are crooked, anyhow." Taylor says in his letter that he told Hart that if he believed persons over the 'phone who would not give their names to five. him, he would be through with the Chicago club.

cago ciub.

Jack says that he started for the door, but Hart suid: "However, I will give you the benefit of the doubt until I get more evidence against you."

Taylor then says he left Hart's office and went to the hotel where the club was dressing for the game.

"Mr. Selee saw there was something wrong and asked what was the matter," further says Taylor.

wrong and asked what was the matter,"
further says Taylor.
Taylor told of what had happened in Hart's office and Selec tried to induce Jack to pitch the game. He put on his uniform, but refused to pitch and sat on the bench
throughout the game.
The team returned to the hotel and Taylor then says he told Selec that he had better be traded off, saying that Cincinnati might consider the deal.

Taylor says that during the winter he saw in the newspapers that he had been traded to St. Louis. He then wrote a letter to Hart in which he told him that he did not need to make a trade, as he would not go there. Hart replied and said that he understood that Taylor wanted to he traded, and for that reason the deal was carried out with St. Louis.

"The only way that you could be a member of the Cinchniati team would be through the St. Louis team giving you member of the Cincinnati team would be through the St. Louis team giving you your release," was Hart's reply.

Taylor later received a letter from Mr. Robison of the St. Louis Chib. with a contract, asking that it be signed.

Taylor sent the letter to Herrmann at Cincinnati.

RULES AGAINST MABEL SPANG. Heiress Must Go Back to Sanita

rium, Says Court.

New York, Jan. 18 - Mabel Spang, a 22.000,000 Pittsburg helress, was ordered recommitted to the sanitarium of Doctor Barnes at Yonkers by Judge Marean in Brooklyn to-day. The court, after a hearing behind closed doors, decided that the persons responsible for her incarceration fully detained. She was brought to court after habeas corpus proceedings, and tes tified in her own behalf. The Judge said in his decision: "The commitment was void, by reaso

"The commitment was vold, by reason of its having been made without notice or opportunity to be heard. But Miss Spang is a minor and is held also by virtue of delegated parental authority. She is not, and, I think, rever was, insane, but she is disobelient and unfilled and is subject, when permitted her freedom, to a vicious influence and is casely led.

"And I find the restraint to which she is being subjected to be reasonable and necessary under the circumstances.

"The writ is dismissed and Miss Spang is remanded."

LEADERS OF CONGRESS MAY AGREE ON MEASURE.

instant death.

Washington, Jan. 18 - It is asserted today, with more than ordinary show of consiction, that an agreement is being made between the leaders of the Senate and the House of Representatives in accordance with which ratirond legislation will be enacted into law at the present session of Congress. The basis of the legislation will be the measure drawn by Colonel Hepburn, hairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the House. That bill already has been considered by the Prestient, Attorney General Moody, the President, Attorney General Moody, Secretaries Taft and Mormon, and by members of both the House of Representatives and Senate.

It does not meet the approval of all who have examined it, but it is believed to be a good foundation for a measure which probably can be enacted. The probability is that the Hepburn bill will be passed by the House before February 1.

NORTH SIDE BEATS UNION CLUB

First and Second Y. M. C. A. Teams Defeat Doctor Obrock's Fives at Basket Ball.

The North Side Y. M. C. A. teams last night won both games of the St. Louis Basket-Ball League schedule from the Union Club first and second teams. In the big game, the Northsiders were victors by the score of 27 to 5.

The game was an interesting one and proved that the Union Club is coming to the front. The Union Club players displayed more team work than on their former games.

In the opening contest between the second teams the Norths won by the score of 25 to 12. The game was less one-sided than in the last and furnished good sport. The line-up:
